Hearing in background noise let's make things clear

We offer definitive evidence based advice on what improvements can be made to your hearing in background noise. Learn about any limitations you may have.

How do Age UK Hearing Aids make sense of speech in background noise?

Over the years, problems of hearing can have become very skilled at defining the actual hearing loss you have using Pure Tone Audiometry (PTA), this is what most people mean when they say having a "hearing test". However, defining the effect a hearing loss can have on our ability to listen and communicate is far harder to calculate.

These tests are used to program hearing aids in a basic way. They don't really tell you how the brain is working in respect of processing the sounds. So you can have two people with identical PTA test results but who have VERY different experiences with their hearing and very different abilities to communicate.

Age UK Hearing Aids are tackling the problem of background noise head on by creating an innovative new way of dealing with this issue. It's a popular misconception that your hearing will be improved simply by amplifying what you hear. But one of the most common problems people encounter with hearing difficulties in background noise is that speech remains muffled and indistinct and that unwanted noise swamps foreground sounds. Simply making sounds louder doesn't make speech any clearer.

How we test our ability to communicate
At Age UK Hearing Aids we have combined the hearing test with a suite of assessments that provide a 360° analysis of a person's hearing. Each assessment is linked to a phase of communication decline which we have called the 5 phases of communication decline.

The 5 phases of communication decline

Phase 1 – Sensitivity to sound

We use the standard Pure Tone Audiometry (PTA) hearing test to assess any decline in sensitivity to sound.

Phase 2 – Speech discrimination in quiet

We use Free Field Word Recognition Tests, presented through a calibrated loud speaker, to assess any decline in speech recognition.

Phase 3 – Speech discrimination in noise

We use a special calibrated Speech in Noise test to measure what level speech needs to be, relative to all other competing sounds, for a patient to be able to follow a conversation. This is the most commonly reported and most important area of communication difficulty for most of the patients we see.

Phase 4 – Comfort or tolerance to background noise

We use the Acceptable Noise Level (ANL) test to measure at what level an individual finds noise annoying relative to a conversation at a comfortable volume. This assesses any decline in acceptable noise levels.

Phase 5 – Non response to amplification

Once we program a hearing solution and apply that hearing correction to your ears we use an Aided Free Field Word Recognition test to assess the potential for improvement and design your rehabilitation pathway.

Using these five different assessment tools can identify how far any damage to your auditory system has progressed and look at the impact on your ability to communicate. After the assessment you will be given a full explanation of the results to ensure you fully understand the nature of your hearing difficulties and the effects.

We will then give advice on options available and what tailored hearing solution is right for you. As part of the consultation we can also give you a demonstration of your ideal hearing solution based on technology and best value.

Not all national hearing aid companies offer all these tests as a standard part of their service. You can be confident you are getting the very best assessment available to you.

They were working on the roof of the closed-down Dinton 'K' Power Station. The building that collapsed was due to be taken down by controlled demolition.

The search for the two missing men was paused when police announced a body had been discovered on Wednesday evening. It was later confirmed to be John Shaw.

Mr. Shaw, of Henley, along with Mr. Crosswell and Mr. Shaw had been working on the roof of the closed-down Dinton 'K' Power Station. The building that collapsed was due to be taken down by controlled demolition.

Colson and Company managing director Mark Colson said the operation has been "pain-staking and difficult". He added: "It's been more than six months since the tragedy occurred at Dinton. I know there have been the most difficult days for the families of our three missing friends and colleagues."

Chris Durrant, John Shaw and Ken Crosswell. Durrant and Moore had also replaced Colson and Company as principal contractor.

Suttonham MP David Clark said, who represents the town of Henley, said on Thursday: "It is such a relief that one of the missing men has finally been found but we must remember that the other two are still missing. There has also been a loss of life for the victims."

Hospital bosses planning to cope with extra strikes

STAFF at Oxfordshire's hospitals are preparing to cope with extra strikes in the coming months as a national debate over junior doctors' contracts continues.

After announcing five days of strikes each month between September and December on Friday, the British Medical Association is likely to decide its response this autumn as part of a plan for September 13 to 14.

They agreed to the deal after NHS England said it would not force a strike.

But the BMA maintains the deal is not a strike as it is not a strike.

Oxfordshire hospitals bosses said they are looking at options for how to deal with the strikes.

Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust runs the John Radcliffe Hospital, Churchill Hospital and Radcliffe Department Centre in Oxford, Oxford, and the Oxford General Hospital in Radcliffe.

The Trust's director of clinical services, Paul Brown, said: "We are disappointed that an agreement has been reached

by Dorcas Thomas

at national level leading to further periods of industrial action.

"At this stage, the Trust is reviewing the impact on patients of extra strikes. NHS Foundation Trust runs a mixed health and community hospital across Oxfordshire.

A Trust statement said: "Services provided by Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust were not specifically disrupted by previous strikes, but we have worked closely with our junior doctors, union representatives and all our staff to ensure we are providing a safe level of care to our patients during the upcoming period of industrial action."

A number of permanent have been put in place to maintain the department in our services. Health secretary Jeremy Hunt has said he will impose a new contract on the junior doctors in the NHS in England this October after they rejected a 1.1% pay rise.

It is where pay and working hours are not covered, but could create working hours as well as the other impact it could have on health services.

Hundreds join housing crisis protest

ASHT/1000s of people and campaigners marched through Oxford on Saturday to demand action to be taken to alleviate the country's housing crisis.

The 'Make Oxfordshire Affordable' rally, organised by local group ASHT, took place along the route from the Oxford Health Services Branch, began at Cowley Road and headed along High Street and Cornmarket Street, before ending in Ship Street with a series of rallies and speeches.

Protesters demanded an increase in wages to match rents, to end the housing crisis and to ensure social housing. Oxfordshire ASHTON (ASHT) said: "Oxford is a city in crisis. The housing crisis is a disaster for the city."

"As well as understanding living standards to people, there is a greater proportion of people into housing, the housing crisis is understanding our public services and local economy." "We are not just a city with high prices but also a city with high prices for the poor."

help workers in restaurants to live on Oxford and to support public services, as the longer term we need to build a new social housing system to stop wages being eaten up by more rent and house prices.

According to campaign group Affordable Oxford, an income of £13,000 a year is needed to afford a mortgage in a high priced area, double house in the city.

They are warning that the government's new housing will not be made the situation even worse with rents being used to sell off property, and social housing being sold off to private companies.

One commercial market said: "The pay for London jobs but we don't get London wages."

"There are more people than can be employed in Oxfordshire."

"Health and care workers can't afford to live here - this is undermining local services and our local economy."

Village residents celebrate getting fast broadband

AVILLAGE near Thame in Oxfordshire celebrates its fast broadband.

In the second phase of the Cuckoo Broadband scheme, residents in Cuckoo are now enjoying fast internet access.

Since the project's roll-out two years ago, 470 homes and businesses in Cuckoo have been able to enjoy fast internet access. The scheme was funded by Vodafone, owner of the village's own broadband network. The village is now the first in the country to have a dedicated broadband network.

The roll-out of the network is a huge achievement - now it doesn't matter how many people want to go online. The network is now the fastest broadband service in the country.

"Villagers were pleased by their 100Mbps service," said the village council. "It's a huge achievement."

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

NY band to play

LIVE MUSIC Any/Yes band lead David Mann Hinch will be playing the CD Academy in Oxford on Thursday September 15.

The three-piece, made up of Mike Weiss, David Hinch and Jonathan Maudsley, will perform tunes from their new album Red Sky which was released earlier this year. Tickets cost £9.05 and the gig starts at 7pm.

Comedy night

COMEDY The Glen Club weekly comedy for all audiences will feature Scottish 15-minute funnyman Jason Jorgensen and Ed of Steel and another comedian who has yet to have been confirmed perform at the Pyralis Bridge Street venue. Available for over 10 tickets cost £14.50 and doors open at 7.30pm.

Band to return

LIVE MUSIC Folk rock, rock and soul band Derry & The Chameleons will perform at the Oxfordshire Arts Centre in Oxford on Sunday September 16.

The band, named after a popular Round Club book, will perform tracks from their six studio albums. The gig will start at 7.30pm and tickets cost £15.

Tribute band to play U2's party

FOK just over ten years, U2 tribute band 100% has been delivering sound of the Irish group's most iconic songs.

"With or without this, I think the band is the best. The Pils and 'Dance' songs are off the books for some group plays."

So you can hear these and other hits when 100% performs at the 14th in Whipsnade on the night.

With this being the band's first appearance at the Corn Street venue, Simon Pearce, who performs lead guitar, says the band's sound is what gives their audience good value for money before the band goes off to the Republic of Ireland to perform at the 12th anniversary celebration in Dublin later this month.

Pearce told the Observer: "We have been extremely lucky in getting some high-profile gigs in that time, in my opinion. Thanks, we have been, going much higher. We have been in the UK, we're heading off to Dublin this month and, along with some festivals and live gigs, it has been pretty important to us."

"With a band like U2, one of the hardest things to do is choose the set list for any venue or event. They have such a large back catalogue, choosing that down into a two-hour show is a 'blast' experience."

By James Richings

"However, we are to create the feeling of an intimate U2 gig, remembering the music moments from their history, the nights and sound as well as the energy."

As well as Simon Pearce, the band is made up of his brother, Dave Pearce as lead singer, Simon Adams, Clayton as Jack Butler and Larry Mullins as drummer Jim Keating. The band has played a strong following, regularly being scheduled to be seen at the venue.

Two years have passed since U2's last gig, and at that time, the band has seen a fourfold increase in their live shows.

And with more tribute bands emerging, Simon hopes their live performances can capture a new generation of tribute fans. "It is incredibly important to keep music alive," he said.

"Without live music, without artists would never have managed to get started and without all our best artists with their music."

"We get a real buzz when young people attend our shows because they are generally amazed at how many tracks they know and like."

The gig tomorrow night will start at 8pm and tickets cost £10.

Duo to star in Ayckbourn play

INTRODUCTION of one of legendary playwright Alan Ayckbourn's most famous plays will visit the Oxford Playhouse from Monday September 10 to Saturday September 17

First performed in 1981, Endlessly Speaking returns to the Eastman Street Theatre as part of its UK tour by the Kenny Wax Theatre Company, co-directed by James Lane Todd and Robert French.

It tells the story of Greg, who despite only meeting girlfriend Casey a month previously, decides she is the one for him and heads to her parents' house in Florida to make love to her. And it starts at 11:30 a.m.

But although he calls it the right house, the couple he remembers, Philip and Sheila, played by Powell and Goddard, are not Gino's parents but, as along with the situation.

She said, "It isn't lovely about Shole and King at all. They're the two characters in the story."

Speaking of her role as Sheila, Bedford said "At times it's like she has just fallen down the rabbit hole into Wonderland because things are so much more surreal than anything I'm making any sense whatsoever but she just carries on easily. She just

"The last thing I did, there weren't many jokes in it, and I quite nice to go back to straight comedy."

With Powell and Goldblatt having worked with Agathidium many times, the opportunity of a role as worm in one of his plays was too good an offer to turn down.

Costello said, "I've been very fortunate. He's just like the best director in the entire universe and you just want to please him. He's amazing to work with and all you want to do is get it right for him and even though he's not directly involved in this production, he may come and see it and if he does it'll be terrific."

Frost said, "He's just fun to be with. I remember in our spare time in Scarborough in the 1940s he and I used to go down to the academy and play pinball. We were both addicted to games and I seem to recall we won some marbles once."

Do you know the difference between an mot and a service ?

Many customers assume that when an mot is carried out on their vehicle it will ensure that the vehicle is safe and ready to use on the road. Well believe it or not this is some cases this is not correct, in fact a vehicle can pass the mot and not be fit for use on the public highway.

The mot standards are very low and are purely there to ensure the condition of the vehicle on the day. On many occasions it is not uncommon to pass a vehicle with tyres and brakes just over the test standards then a week or so later the vehicle owner needing to have the parts replaced.

When we carry out an mot test we always explain to the customer the findings and the available vehicle owners tend to listen and have items replaced that are just on the pass line.

We cannot emphasise enough how important it is to have a service along side an mot to ensure your vehicle is safe and fit for use on the public highway. Service standards are far more robust and will highlight areas that an mot (which is not designed to do this) with most modern vehicles electronics on a service correctly done the garage will use a laptop or similar to interrogate the complex electronics to pick up any hidden issues.

Many customers are on a budget and wrongly assume that by missing a service they save money, well that is a myth, think of it like this you use the car do you carry children, pets, shopping, friends and you go to work, school, college, out on your car and you expect all of these total reliability and safety in a car you have spent £1000s of your hard earned cash on. Yet you are doing this without anything more than a mot test once a year on the mot station belief.

the mot will ensure your safety

We see countless customers who arrive on the back of a breakdown wagon simply because simple service checks/ replacements have been missed and the customer have had their holiday day out or trip to work ruined because they do not understand the mot scheme.

Williams are back up to fourth with decent showing in Monza

THE last straight of Italian Grand Prix saw Felipe Massa jump back up to fourth in the constructor's championship after a season's poor performance at Sunday's Italian Grand Prix.

Valtteri Bottas finished sixth and Felipe Massa made an impressive start to his season, taking the pole position. He led for most of the race, but was overtaken by Michael Schumacher.

Bottas in particular made a strong start to Sunday's race,

by Adrian Ffrench

making up a place of the start following Lewis Hamilton's slow getaway to rank fourth in the early stages.

Bottas was soon able to regain ground, leaving Bottas in a run-in battle with the Red Bull of Daniel Ricciardo.

And it would take a serious battle over the line as Ricciardo was overtaken by Hamilton.

Hamilton drove his Red Bull up the inside of the Williams to take the first place.

Bottas said: "I set myself a goal of finishing on the podium, but we didn't quite have the pace which meant that I had to push the tyre a little to score."

"The pace just wasn't there, but overall we knew Monza was a positive result for the team, taking back fourth place in the constructor's championship."

Massa ended the race in ninth position, but he was happy to have been back on the podium, which he had not done since the previous race.

It means after the 16-year-old Brazilian announced ahead of the race that he would be retiring from F1 at the end of 2004.

Massa said: "I think it was a good race apart from the fact that we didn't have the pace we expected with the system given."

"My race started after I changed water but I expected it to be a good race. I would have got a big score out of my tyres which could have been better but I'm glad that we managed to take back fourth in the constructor's championship."

But it was an afternoon to be glad for Hamilton's brilliant, with Ricciardo's brilliant, with Ricciardo's brilliant, with Ricciardo's brilliant.

Hamilton, back at the car after his horrific high-speed crash in Belgium, made a promising start but slipped back during the race, ending up seventh.

And Ricciardo's race was ended prematurely when he was hit at the final flag by Michael Schumacher with the two cars colliding and resulting in two more damage to be able to continue.

Hamilton's last grand prix F1 race was "a bit of a surprise" at Spa, Monza proved to be a surprise challenge of the year.

"The problems are not easily solved, but we know that in 2004 we will be the strongest."

No luck after strong qualifying

BARCELONA'S new Formula 1 track has been a disappointment for both teams and drivers. Lewis Hamilton was the only driver to make a decent start in the race, but he was overtaken by Michael Schumacher.

Late Sercombe winner steals the points for United U's dig deep to bury Dale

A LATE goal from Alan Sercombe gave United victory over Northdale in a win on Saturday.

The goal, scored by Sercombe, was a late consolation victory over the Lacanville side who are still looking for a first win of the season.

Dale's attack started to show its teeth as they came back again, but they were unable to break through the United defence. The game ended in a 1-1 draw.

The victory gave the United a first win of the season, while Northdale's loss was a setback for the team.

Dale had a chance of a late goal, but it was not to be.

The game was a close one, with both teams having chances.

By Dorcas Thomas

Double deadline day deal

Marvin Johnson

Age: 21
 Position: Forward
 Previous clubs: Tottenham Hotspur, Birmingham

Charlie Hughes

Age: 21
 Position: Defender
 Previous clubs: Middlesbrough, Doncaster Rovers

OXFORD United's Michael Appleton has brought praise on himself and his team by scoring twice in a 2-1 win over Luton on Saturday.

Oxford United led 1-0 at half-time and kept both keeper John West and defender Charlie Hughes on their toes on Saturday.

After a run of four points, Appleton and Johnson joined the club in what is believed to be a club record fee.

By George Welch

Luton Football League club last month, but it is still thought to be higher than the £100,000 the club paid for Dean Woodcock in 2011.

Johnson came on as a tactical substitution for striker Kieran Dowling in his first game against Luton, scoring twice in a 2-1 win.

Yellow boss Michael Appleton said the club was "very happy" with the signing of the 21-year-old.

There was one more transfer to make - but going to be a big talent.

The 21-year-old winger, who signed a three-year contract, had been a top target for Appleton following the sale of Calum Dowie to Bristol City during the summer transfer window.

United had two bids turned down by Middlesbrough but Johnson, who scored 11 goals in 44 appearances for the Scottish side after joining from Kilmarnock in February 2013, finished a transfer request on Monday last week before the move.

There was uncertainty over the transfer on deadline day but the deal was wrapped up with less than three hours to go.

And Appleton also strengthened his defensive options by signing Doncaster defender Charlie Hughes on August 4.

The 21-year-old, who provided over 10 goals in 44 appearances for Doncaster, came from Doncaster Rovers.

Hughes has played all league games for the Ravens since signing from Doncaster United in July 2014 and played against Oxford in the league opener at the Kassam on August 4.

He was also given a starting place Saturday as a late replacement, picking up a yellow card for a foul.

Appleton said: "We've got a lot of new arrivals in the halfway stage now - we're a new team and it's still building."

"Unlike as long as we keep playing against them, we're not done. But the season-end the way they play it really isn't in our hands at Oxford."

Age UK Hearing Aids Cosmetic Clinic

Clear and simple advice on discreet hearing solutions to fit your lifestyle

Technological advances have enabled manufacturers to add features to tiny hearing aids. These can eliminate many of the problems associated with these highly cosmetic fittings.

However, less in size can sometimes mean less in performance so a very careful and detailed assessment is required before recommending style choices. Not only do we link the style choices you'll have to your test results but unlike many other providers with Age UK Hearing Aids less in size doesn't mean more in price.

Our approach

Our aim is to ensure you enjoy the greatest possible improvement and the best value for money. We have access to every manufacturer and only prescribe the newest and most appropriate technology.

We specialise in offering a wide selection of discreet and invisible hearing aids and because of our detailed assessment we can tailor them into the most discrete solutions possible without impacting on their performance.

Independence & Ethics

Many hearing aid companies are either owned by or have a supply agreement with a manufacturer and as such are not truly independent.

Age UK Hearing Aids are fully independent. We can supply hearing solutions from any manufacturer.

Being independent not only means we can prescribe the right solution for you but it also allows us to gain a much broader view of the market and the latest technologies.

To take the next step you should phone us now to arrange a completely free of charge and without obligation hearing assessment. Whenever you decide to do following the assessment it will prove a highly valuable experience and will allow you to learn fully what can be done to improve your hearing and help you to live life!
